00:19:49 Ahmad Masri: Good morning from Docklands, Victoria.

00:20:07 jannene kyytsonen: Greetings from about to be un-locked down dharawal country

00:20:38 Kana Leya: Good morning everyone ! :) Grateful to gather together, greetings from Sydney Australia 🌞🙌😊🌍

00:21:19 Freya Higgins-desbiolles: Here on unceded Kurna lands. I hope we get to hear Richie's chooks again in addition to this special talk.

00:21:25 Polly Hemming:

00:21:42 Christaan Cartledge: Hullo from Dharawal country (Wollongong).

00:21:46 Natasha Verma: Bula everyone, greetings from Suva!

00:21:51 Andreas Ojanggal: Good Morning everyone and have a nice day from West Papua

00:22:09 Ida Tupai Faasalafa: Good morning from Maroubra.

00:22:16 Virginia Mansel Lees: Hello everyone - I cam on the lands of the Dudaroha people whose land was never ceded

00:22:19 jannene kyytsonen: Visited Samoa in February 20 and I pretty well rained the whole time, but fabulous people and landscape.

00:22:28 Diana Madden: good morning from Gadigal Country

00:22:28 Faith Siaosi: Talofa from Melbourne

00:22:42 Sen Lealamanua T Autagavaia: Talofa your Hon PM Fiame Naomi Mata'afa from Sydney Australia.

00:22:58 Robert McLaughlin: Hello from Wiadjuri country.

00:23:08 Greg ("Darwin", Larrakia country, Australia): Importantly, since the troposphere doesn't seem to respect our arbitrary political national boundaries, the only relevant measure is "emissions per capita". Australian residents are exceeded only by the oil-exporting all-stars; they are more than twice as high as those from China; and they are even higher than those who live in USA!

00:23:09 Sabine Kacha: Hello from Gadigal country

00:23:23 Noelene Nabulivou: Talofa lava, Kia Orana, Malo e lelei, Ni sa bula vinaka, la orana, Fakaalofa lahi atu, Taloha ni, Halo olketa, Kam na mauri, Kia ora, Namaste, and Hello. Noelene Nabulivou, Director, DIVA for Equality, Women Defend Commons Network and GEF Global Action Coalition on 'Feminist Action for Climate Justice', joining from Nadera, Fiji. Looking forward to this session.

00:23:38 Sharon Holmes: G'day from Kurna country (Largs Bay SA)

00:23:41 Hean Bee Wee: Hi everyone. I am Hean Bee Wee rom Melbourne. President of ICW/APRC

00:24:06 Maria Tuua: good morning everyone from Melbourne ,Talofa to our PM FIAME NAOMI MATAAFA

00:24:26 Kaye Paton: hi from Ngurra country

00:24:39 Sharon Bhagwan-Rolls: Good morning from Suva, Fiji - joining from the Shifting the Power Coalition Regional Hub

00:24:57 Uani Havea: Mālō e laumālie Ta'ahine Fiame Naomi Matā'afa. ❤️

00:25:07 Catherine Byrne: Hi from Cammeraygal Country. V much looking forward to this important conversation.

00:25:07 Polly Hemming: To introduce Gladys you can see this powerful video where she visits her grandparents home in the Pacific that is now completely submerged by rising sea levels: <https://www.bbc.com/reel/video/p09lpjnj/is-this-the-first-island-to-vanish-due-to-climate-change->

00:25:22 Ida Tupai Faasalafa: Good morning to our beautiful Madam PM of Samoa, malo le soifua ile Sao Faapito 😊

00:25:40 Marjorie Rauch: Hello all. Anne Rauch from Gadigal country (Sydney)

00:26:08 Marion Jacka: Greetings Hon PM Fiame Naomi Mata'afa from Dharawal land in NSW. Thank you for your time.

00:26:11 Noelene Nabulivou: Talofa and congratulations, Hon Samoa PM Fiame Naomi Mata'afa.

00:26:27 Jennifer Mary: thank you to Samoa PM for stepping up to lead her country, and us laggards, forward

00:26:56 Sherryl Broderick: Thank you for your time Prime Minister, welcome from Gundungara country 😊

00:26:58 Mema Motusaga: Malo le soifua, lau Afioga i le Sao Faapito, lau Afioga Tamaitai Palemia. Lele malie lau tia, matou tapuai atu - Mema Motusaga

00:27:17 Alicia Colley: Good morning from Boon Wurrung country Point Cook

00:27:24 Ida Tupai Faasalafa: 😊❤️

00:27:38 Claire Tolovaa: wswswsws

00:28:02 David Haines: Talofa everyone from Gundungara land in the Southern Highlands of NSW.

00:28:04 Minerva Patu: Talofa from beautiful Sydney

00:28:35 Sen Lealamanua T Autagavaia: ❤️ ws ❤️

00:29:47 Ida Tupai Faasalafa: ❤️ Hon Fiame Naomi Mata'afa ❤️

00:29:48 Helen Hill: Greetings from Timor-Leste, this session takes me back to my years working for the Commonwealth Youth Program in Fiji 1987-1890 with Pacific Islanders from all the Commonwealth countries, environment was just beginning to become an issue then, and lots of worry about Australia's position. Greetings Prime Minister of Samoa, I have visited your beautiful country several times.

00:30:20 meipo anitema: Malo le soifua from the land of the people of Wathaurung, Woiewurrung and Boonwurrung peoples of the Kulin Nation.

00:31:08 John Millar: Fa from Ngarrandjeri country. My brother was part of the VAGST taskforce 20+ years ago.

00:31:09 Ahmad Masri: congratulations and faamalo faafetai Hon. Mata'afa.

00:31:52 Peter Maywald: Malo e lelei on behalf of Tongan participants.

00:33:26 Sabine Kacha: Torres Strait Islander feeling the impacts of climate change have brought a complaint against the UN, very concerned about current proposed amendments weakening the NT Aboriginal Land Rights Act as well as threats to Fracking, destroying environment and violating First Nations Peoples' rights even further

00:33:41 Sabine Kacha: Please join Reconciliation for Western Sydney Virtual Building Bridges on 27 Oct when Jon Altman will be speaking about concerning amendments to the NT Aboriginal Land Rights Act in his talk "Land Rights at Risk, again? Evaluation of the Economic Empowerment Bill"

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/virtual-building-bridges-land-rights-at-risk-again-tickets-178411261887>

00:33:48 Sean Bowler: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rGMrGIAHUq0>

00:33:55 Sean Bowler: we are joking

00:34:02 Deborah Biber: Fantastic initiative from the Australia Institute. A real coup in having this fabulous leader present to us. How incredibly privileged are we! This accent on the Pacific Island Nations is long overdue. Kudos to you. She is brilliant.

00:34:31 Jennifer Mary: agree

00:34:50 Bernie Ingle: Well said Deborah

00:35:23 Violet Pritchard: thank you Hon. Fiamē Mata'afa for representing the Island nations of the Pacific.

00:35:50 Sharon Holmes: An inspiring declaration by this PM from Samoa. Puts Morrison to shame. Whilst not religious, this is an example of a David and Goliath story. We all know that Australia is the largest per capita polluter/carbon emitter. How can Morrison consider not attending COP26? He must attend but from past experiences, he'll be missing in action and let someone else face the music.

00:37:16 Jennifer Mary: Hey everyone. When this is up on YouTube I'll send the link to PM's office to give him some ideas for his non-existent plan. I suggest you do the same. If his inbox is full, he might pay some attention.

00:37:20 Marion Jacka: When is our PM going to stop patronising Pacific Island leaders and respond to their calls for real action?

00:37:59 Margaret Jolly: Talofa from the unceded lands of Ngūnawal and Ngambri peoples Honoured by your staunch leadership in the climate crisis and links to COVID-19 recovery Congratulations on the plans for Samoa

00:38:09 Darryl Fallow: @Jennifer Mary - I like your idea!

00:38:34 Ian Murray: Greetings from Childers. Please don't overlook Kiribati when considering global climate changes

00:39:00 Kevin WHITE: At the risk of going off-topic, but this is a rare chance to put to the PM whether she intends doing something about Samoa being used as an offshore tax haven (highlighted again in the Pandora Papers).

00:39:02 Kerry Habel: Thanks Margaret Jolly. First Nations Peoples understand

00:39:16 Sen Lealamanua T Autagavaia: Great speech. Thank you for speaking out and lead our Blue Pacific to tackle climate

00:39:22 Tassie Metusela: Talofa lava from Melbourne Australia

00:39:31 Sharon Holmes: Good thinking Jennifer Mary!

00:39:31 Uani Havea: Thank you for the priorities of Blue Pacific. Indeed we need to start with our own Blue Pacific and we need the solution from our Aussie neighbour. Thank you Hon. Fiamē.

00:39:32 Jennifer Mary: Dear PM. I think its only Pm Morrison and the coal lobby who aren't with you. Any suggestions what we might do?

00:39:33 Rhiannon Verschuer: If you have any questions for the Prime Minister or the panellists, make sure to ask them using the Q&A function now, or upvote other's questions you'd like answered.

00:39:35 Peter Emberson: Vinaka vakalevu PM Mata'afa

00:39:48 Rhiannon Verschuer: A reminder to please keep all comments in the chat on topic – Thanks!

00:39:48 Glenn O: Good point, Kevin. All tax havens should be targeted - so many lost billions

- 00:40:37 Francis Ventura: What a beautiful address. Visionary, inspiring and from a position of care. May we request you to become Prime Minister of Australia?
- 00:40:37 Simone Bula: vinaka madam, great message.
- 00:40:45 Barbara Lyle: Thank you. A privilege to hear from Samoa's President. We can hope that our PM and all of the members of our Federal Government will finally listen
- 00:41:55 Kerry Habel: Why is it that the women Prime Ministers in the Pacific are so far sighted and aware of the issue?
- 00:42:24 Kana Leya: Thank You Prime Minister & each of the organisers, Kanaleya CEO Global Impact Group. Alongside the rise of climate finance, is the rise of social bonds. Are social bonds for grassroots climate resilience, an area of interest for the Samoan Government & your respective specialist teams?
- 00:42:30 Jennifer Mary: Kerry, that's what women do. Not old white men
- 00:43:31 Faith Siaosi: Beautifully said. It won't achieved overnight but step by step if we are heading towards a common goal and support each other, we can achieve greatness.
- 00:44:06 DIVA for Equality: The Women and Gender Constituency to UNFCCC preCOP position shared here, including Pacific feminist and women-led groups like DIVA for Equality in Fiji, FYI: <https://womengenderclimate.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/09/WGC-PreCOP26-Brief.pdf>
- 00:44:09 Sean Bowler: yeah right, let's get Michaela cash as our next PM?
- 00:44:20 Annette Luders: Well, if it wouldn't be so sad and tragic, our PM is making himself, and our country, a laughing stock internationally, AND not having the balls to face up to it, - staying home from the summit in Glasgow!!!
- 00:44:31 Jennifer Mary: sorry Sean. Not all women. Some clearly excluded
- 00:44:39 Sean Bowler: yep!
- 00:44:41 Annette Luders: Sean, really??????????
- 00:44:56 Sean Bowler: gender shouldn't come into it
- 00:45:16 Sean Bowler: there whole objective is to divide and conquer
- 00:45:43 Greg ("Darwin", Larrakia country, Australia): Ha ha. It's a shame that it always has. Always us "stale pale males". :-(
- 00:45:48 Minerva Patu: Excellent response from our pacific youth representative
- 00:45:58 Sherryl Broderick: Agree with you Sean ... but in fact gender does come into it ...
- 00:46:53 George Samia: gender always comes into it ❤️
- 00:47:22 Annette Luders: Different gender, different perspective, - all for the good of all.
- 00:47:43 George Samia: emotional intelligence ❤️
- 00:47:45 Maria Tuua: LOVELY speech Hon PM FIAME NAOMI MATAAFA GB, great to be recognise to support our CLIMATE CHANGE TO emphasizes regulation for our future pacific
- 00:48:22 Tony Weir: gladys words on the importance of climate change for young people contrasts with our miniter for environment (sussan ley) who is fighting a court ruling that she owes a duty care to young people. (case is sharma v minister for environment)
- 00:48:54 Rhiannon Verschuer: Gladys made a powerful video where she visits her grandparents home in the Solomon Islands, that is now completely submerged by rising sea levels. You can watch it here: https://twitter.com/Gladys_H_/status/1430115439653257218 or here <https://www.bbc.com/reel/video/p09lpjnj/is-this-the-first-island-to-vanish-due-to-climate-change->
- 00:49:19 Darryl Fallow: Agree with Richie - these are strong powerful voices that we are hearing. Thank you!
- 00:50:33 Sen Lealamanua T Autagavaia: beautiful response from the youth leader. step by step we can achieve great things if we all work together. action needed urgently as some of the Islands in the Pacific are drowning by climate change.

00:50:59 Kenneth Waldron: Gladys, a thoughtful and important message. Young voices seem to have a better cut through on this issue than the most

00:51:43 Faith Siaosi: Well said PM.

00:52:05 Tassie Metusela: Yeah Journoes being journos! its their right but well played by PM

00:52:43 Greg ("Darwin", Larrakia country, Australia): We don't need "leadership" as much as we need MORE than ONE day of democracy every three years.

00:53:15 George Samia: space invaders, shooting gender myths down.

00:54:05 Graham Turvey: Just as the people of the Pacific are affected by the predicted rise in the height of the oceans, so are our coastal regions, even our beloved Sydney Harbour/Port Jackson. I.5 to stay alive for it and us too. History will praise or condemn when it looks back in 2099 about the current leaders' responses.

00:54:41 DIVA for Equality: A key area of progress at COP25 was the adoption of the updated 5-year Gender Action Plan(GAP).
However, two years on, without the opportunities of in-person moments to raise ambition and having been left off the agenda for the virtual dialogues held in June 2021, COP26 must deliver a strong decision or set of conclusions on pushing forward progress under the Gender Action Plan.

00:55:04 George Samia: safety, say that louder sister.

00:55:08 Faith Siaosi: Well said Gladys's Habu

00:56:54 Darryl Fallow: A virtual tanaloa sounds like a good idea, if people can't meet in Glasgow in person.

00:57:23 Faith Siaosi: Yes, virtual meeting and conference is the way now and less cost or no cost for the attendees.

00:57:37 DIVA for Equality: As conservers of more than 30% of the world's land, key to climate justice is upholding the rights of Indigenous Peoples as enshrined in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and respect and implement the principle of Free, Prior and Informed Consent (FPIC). What does the Prime Minister and all propose on this issue related to climate and ecological justice, as also central to Pacific concerns, and what do we expect of Australia?

00:58:32 Marion Jacka: So happy to hear about vaccination rates in Samoa. Congratulations!

00:58:40 Deborah Biber: Wow -vaccination rate is amazing in Samoa. Wish it was the same in Australia.

00:58:53 Jill biddington: Talanoas are a great way for emerging leaders who often aren't the ones chosen to attend expensive international meetings to develop their skills and expertise.

00:58:57 Dawn GrantSkiba: Great leadership in the vaccination rollout!

00:58:58 Darryl Fallow: Thanks for update on vaccinations - that is very encouraging!

00:59:14 David Haines: The PM's democratic response regarding an Australian target is understandable, but from my perspective (an interested 80 year-old Australian with children and grandchildren) talk of a zero target by 2050 is too late for everyone on the planet. We have seen drastic changes to our climate already over the last 30 years - to have any effect on climate change we need a zero target by 2030. Salutations to my Pacific Island neighbours - I am sorry that the developed nations, including mine, have let you down so badly.

00:59:25 Margaret Jolly: Yes Samoa eclipses Australia on vaccination rates!

00:59:33 Marilyn Hillery: I //.,bvcxz jj+'*--

01:00:06 DIVA for Equality: Yes, we need the fossil fuel non-proliferation treaty!

01:00:46 John Englart: Fossil Fuel Treaty. Get your council or other organisation to endorse to build momentum <https://fossilfuel treaty.org/>

- 01:01:27 Sabine Kacha: Good question DIVA for Equality, First Nations have been living for ten thousands of years in harmony with nature and have been excellently taking care of the land. Now with threats to their lands, with fracking in the NT and elsewhere, destruction of sacred sites, destroying the land and climate in the process. The UNDRIP has been finally endorsed but not implemented sadly! FPIC for First Nations people also so important, sadly not respected here
- 01:01:52 Maria Tuua: great to see our young generation pacific highly support this FORUM as part of their knowledge to support CLIMATE CHANGE
- 01:02:20 Annette Luders: Seems like all AU states and territories are onboard vis-a-vis action on climate change, - all onboard with the exception of the PM/Government, how bizarre!
- 01:02:23 Maria Tuua: CONGRATULATION GLADY
- 01:03:07 Ryan Mihalic: Australia has the capabilities to become a alternative energy superpower, not only providing clean energy to our Commonwealth but also export energy to our regional partners around the Asia-Pacific region.
- 01:03:10 Tassie Metusela: On the head there Richie!
- 01:03:38 Annette Luders: Ryan Mihalic, - absolutely, and no reason why not!
- 01:04:12 Maria Tuua: FAAMALO lau afioga HON PM FIAME NAOMI MATAAFA VERY PROUD OF YOUR BEAUTIFUL SPEECH FAAFETAi whats all cover about CLIMATE CHANGE
- 01:05:03 DIVA for Equality: To all panellists: We must all urgently ensure that many more, particularly developed country Parties - will submit new or updated NDCs with 2030 targets ahead of COP26, or re-submit NDCs with markedly enhanced ambition. And they must have strong mitigation, human rights and gender considerations. How much and what work is happening to ensure this happens before COP26 and what is the situation with Australia?
- 01:05:53 Rhiannon Verschuer: Just a reminder that if you have any questions for the panellists, to ask them using the Q&A function. You can also upvote other questions you'd like answered.
- 01:06:08 Darryl Fallow: Agree Richie - Australia should rejoin the GCF. It is fair that we do - and as you mention it has played a key role in the past.
- 01:06:27 Joanne Swain: Elections are not a reliable way to change government policy on climate change. As individuals who care deeply, we can only persist in highlighting and therefore shaming our government's inaction. Activism has never been so important for the future.
- 01:07:30 Greg ("Darwin", Larrakia country, Australia): Agreed, @Joanne Swain. Misinformed elections are feeble in comparison to well-informed, deliberative democracy.
- 01:07:37 DIVA for Equality: +++ Yes re crimes against the environment!
- 01:08:10 Annette Luders: YESSS, Crimes against the Climate! Australia, guilty as charged, unfortunately!
- 01:08:31 Joanne Swain: Ultimately, too many people vote with their hip pocket when push comes to shove.
- 01:09:36 Margaret Jolly: Yes a fossil fuel non proliferation treaty and crimes against environment. We need these radical ideas given the urgency of the crisis.
- 01:10:12 Tassie Metusela: Dont need to "lead the way" just stop leading the emissions
- 01:10:16 Jill biddington: lol, Love that answer, "I am not Australian1"
- 01:10:40 Sen Lealamanua T Autagavaia: haha...I'm not Australian!! funny!
- 01:11:04 Anastasia Lei Sam: thank you Gladys, its looking to be a slow process. Slowly but surely! Faafetai Gladys
- 01:11:04 Dawn GrantSkiba: I'm not Australian! Get it? 😂
- 01:11:42 Minerva Patu: Lol @ PM but agree on Australian joining the green fund
- 01:11:59 John Englart: 3 new coal projects approved by Environment Minister Sussan Ley in last month!!!

- 01:12:06 Diana Madden: The UK government is placing an emphasis on the health effects of climate change to focus people on the extreme threat we face. Flagging the health effects around the world is a great opportunity.
- 01:12:07 Jill biddington: Why does Australia need to lead? We could follow the much more thoughtful Pacific Leaders who have a much clearer idea of what they need. We can support but not lead.
- 01:12:18 Vala O:great question 😊
- 01:12:35 Ruby Rosenfield: Thank you H.H. Dalai Lama and H. H. Pope so much for your initiative in proposing in a fossil fuel non proliferation treaty
- 01:12:35 Anastasia Lei Sam: Yes pls would like to be home
- 01:12:37 David Haines: Thank you Prime Minister Fiamé Naomi Mata'afa for your eloquent address and responses. To help individual Australians heighten awareness of the effects of climate change on Pacific Island nations can your nations
- 01:12:42 Tura Lewai: They need to stop asking her about what Australia should do,
- 01:13:19 rowan white: $200 mil is 0.00222222% of $90 billion
- 01:13:49 Emily Mitchell-Storey: I agree Jill. Australia and Aotearoa NZ's biggest contribution (beyond national change) could be elevating Pacific voices and leadership rather than speaking over or for the region.
- 01:13:58 rowan white: whoops, no, it's 2.2%
- 01:14:20 Minerva Patu: Yes great host thank you
- 01:14:32 John Englart: Just on climate finance and Australia falling far short:
<https://takvera.blogspot.com/2021/09/australian-climate-finance-falling-far.html>
- 01:14:39 Rhiannon Verschuer: If you want an insight into the way in which climate change is already impacting Pacific communities, Gladys made a video where she visits her grandparents home in the Solomon Islands, that is now completely submerged due to rising sea levels. You can watch it here: https://twitter.com/Gladys_H_/status/1430115439653257218 or here <https://www.bbc.com/reel/video/p09lpnj/is-this-the-first-island-to-vanish-due-to-climate-change->
- 01:14:42 Sherryl Broderick: Thank you everybody ... when we visit Samoa lets go by boat/ship rather than fly!!! Reducing our carbon footprint!!!!
- 01:14:49 Marion Jacka: Yes thank goodness for the AI forums-they are wonderful.
- 01:14:54 Jill biddington: Yes Emily - we have to stop behaving like the people with the answers when often we are the people who bring the problems
- 01:14:54 Margaret Jolly: Wonderful panel! Thanks to you all.
- 01:15:03 Ryan Mihalic: Jill, if Australia does not take the mantle of responsibility in the face of this crisis then another Middle or Great Power will. Why should we relegate ourselves to mediocrity when we have the financial, technological and intellectual power and capabilities to make a real difference.
- Elevate the voices of our Pacific comrades, yes; but to not do our part and lead the charge is not wise.
- 01:15:05 Bill Armstrong AO: Thank you Australia Institute.
- 01:15:09 Ryan Mihalic: But I may be wrong.
- 01:15:18 Diane Deane: Thank you for a very important discussion particularly with the Samoan PM.Let's hope our PM takes up all of Richies points.
- 01:15:18 David Evans: Interesting session. Thank you Australia Institute (& Ebony in particular.)
- 01:15:19 Darriel Jeffree: Thank you Prime Minister, yours is a voice of reason in climate discussions.

01:15:21 Ryan Mihalic: Thank you Australia Institute

01:15:29 Frank Freschi: Thank you Ebony and AI - great insights from PM.

01:15:44 Melissa Stutsel: Thank you for the great panel and thank you to the Prime Minister for the great discussion.

01:15:49 Jill biddington: Ryan we must take responsibility but stop behaving like we can lead when we can't manage our own problems

01:15:49 Marjorie Rauch: Thank you everyone. Keep up the struggle and good work.

01:15:55 David Haines: Thank you Rhiannon Verschuier and Gladys - will view it

01:16:03 Tassie Metusela: Samoa also needs to be an example of reducing emissions and reliance on fossil fuels

01:16:03 Sen Lealamanua T Autagavaia: thank you PM Fiaame 😊❤️. thank you Australia Institute.

01:16:04 David Mac Phail: Thank you

01:16:05 Deborah Biber: Fantastic. Thank you Australia Institute. The PM is the kind of leadership that we in Australia need. Not sure we deserve it tho.

01:16:32 Lasale Cocker: Malo e laumalie Hon Fiaame Mata'afa. Thank you to all the panellists, and the Australia Institute

01:16:37 Alisi Nainoca: Thank you Madam Prime Minister

01:16:39 Helen Hill: A great panel, hope the Australia Institute can feature more Pacific Island and small island state speakers.

01:16:41 Vala O: Thank you Hon Prime Minister. Thank you for your work as well Gladys. Great job panel Australia Institute for your continued work

01:16:42 Alisi Nainoca: Thank you Everyone

01:16:42 DIVA for Equality: 1.5 to stay alive!

01:16:42 Margaret Potts: Thank you all of the speakers for the discussion today. Thank you very much Prime Minister for your leadership and Gladys for your advocacy as a younger person on climate change.

01:16:42 Peter Emberson: Many thanks PM Fiaame and to the panel for the discussions. Vinaka to the Australian Institute.

01:16:43 Kenneth Waldron: congratulation AI a really topical seminar

01:16:46 Darryl Fallow: Thank you TAI for hosting and to the Hon Fiaame Naomi Mata'afa for her address and Gladys Habu for her comments. We need better interaction and climate diplomacy to make progress on climate change action. Thanks to Ebony, Richie and Ben.

01:16:47 Margaret Potts: Margaret

01:16:48 Uani Havea: Mālō 'aupito. Thank you so much for this Webinar on Climate Change, Australia Insitute. This is so important to our Blue Ocean and I take my hat off to you Hon. Fiaame Naomi Matā'afa. 🙏

01:16:53 Darriel Jeffree: Thank you Australia Institute.

01:16:55 John Englart: There was awesome leadership from Pacific Nations in Paris (I was priviledged to be there) We (Australia) need to step up and follow Pacific voices

01:17:02 Minerva Patu: Thank you wonderful Samoa PM

01:17:03 Ryan Mihalic: Excellent discussion, now to transform this insight into action on our parts into the foreseeable future!

01:17:04 Ahmad Masri: Thank you all, and thank you Prime Minister.

01:17:07 Violet Pritchard: Thank you hosts for a great forum and PM

01:17:13 John Watson: Thank you to all!

01:17:18 Anastasia Lei Sam: Amazing event, thank you to the host and panelists

01:17:19 Maria Tuua: Thank you PM!

01:17:20 Rhiannon Verschuer: Thanks to all for joining us today and for participating in what was a great discussion on key regional climate issues, and the urgent commitments and ambition needed for the Pacific in the leadup to COP26. Thanks very much to Hon. Fiame Naomi Mata'afa and Gladys for your powerful words.

Thanks again for joining us!

01:17:20 Tassie Metusela: Great discussion! thanks all!

01:17:20 Jill Rogerson: Thanks so much again for a really amazing discussion.

01:17:21 George Samia: Faafetai lava

01:17:22 Kitaila Taleni: Faafetai lava!

01:17:22 Tevvi Bullock: Thank You Australia Institute and Thank you and Congratulations to the world's wonderful women leaders!

01:17:23 Ieti Davis: 😞😞😞 Faafetai tele lava i lou afioga Fiame Naomi Mataafa mo mea uma lava ❤️❤️❤️
