00:22:45 Susan Masters: Bendigo - Labor for 30 years.

00:23:09 Shelley Evans: Eden-Monaro - now safe 8%

- 00:23:21 Bev Majda: What a great outcome! Community-based independents, Greens and Labor
- 00:23:23 Richard Tuffin: Hello from Nugnnawal country where we retained all 3 Labor MPs and got rid of a LNP senator and picked up a great independent senator!
- 00:23:23 Marjorie Henzell: Hello everyone from Anaiwan Country (Armidale NSW) where it is freezing but I have a warm inner glow and can now breathe, because we have a majority Labor Government with with great cultural diversity and an interesting cross bench.
- 00:23:30 Stephen Prohm: True Mel S. Often the older women are not in the statistics.
- 00:23:52 Rosemary Watson: Hope Albanese is prepared to have meaningful discussion with the cross benchers.
- 00:23:55 David Evans: And hello from Goldstein ... home to another newly-minted independent (GoZoe!)
- 00:23:57 Mark Hutchison: Good to see a lot of people in Parliament who aren't lawyers or political staffers
- 00:24:02 John McCallum: The veil of despair has been lifted but where to from here if Albo does not collaborate will labour be a one term Govt.
- 00:24:22 Stephen Pritchard: As Richard Dennis indicated, swings in electorates and overall don't always translate to changes in seats won. Important observation.

- 00:24:48 Dr Leili Golafshani: Hello from Brisbane (Oxley seat)
- 00:24:52 Liz Ryan: Good job Peter! Complex variables - It even made a difference in the last count for 77th seat - postal votes had a lean, absentees the opposite!
- 00:24:54 mel s: David..Happy to see Tim Wilson go..he never mentioned Zoe Daniel in his concession speech..speaks VOLUMES
- 00:25:06 Anthony Smith: that's really interesting about yougov

- 00:25:35 Rod simpson: Hi, Rod Simpson, Voices of North Sydney Cammeraygal land. Can't beat 'feet on the street' to really understand the sentiment.

- 00:25:50 Angelika Heurich: Agree Richard T... if the Libs had been in potential minority or otherwise, this would have created some very interesting 'negotiations' (or not)
- 00:26:55 Tony Simons: The LNP has a long list of failed leaders going back to Dolly Downer and Lord Nelson
- 00:26:56 mel s: Interesting that the CEO of The Guides Dog resigned as well today..Josh Frydenberg thanked her as well..
- 00:26:56 Colin Mitchell: Yes, Labor must cooperate with the Greens and Independants. They don't think so but doing that will improve their policies. I think the future is a Labor-Greens coalition.
- 00:27:00 Caroline Tulip: Volunteer from Pocock campaign here. Redbridge Seat polling was essential and informed the campaign. over 2,400 volunteers went door to door. no one say anyone from Seselja campaign except paid workers.
- 00:27:18 kim darling: Can we hear about how the voting will flavour the legislation agenda
- 00:27:24 Shelley Evans: ABC was confusing and confused. A bit annoying to hear Leigh Sales ask Tanya Plibersek where Labor went wrong!
- 00:27:31 Caroline Tulip: Not Teals - Community independents
- 00:27:45 Aron Segal: Hello from Macnamara. So happy for our Josh Burns
- 00:27:48 mel s: I was in the audience of Q and A and Alexander Downer LOST it completely ..He was rude to all the female panelists
- 00:27:54 mel s: BIG CALL Pete
- 00:27:58 Bev Majda: Hear ya sister Shelley
- 00:27:59 Tracey Hamilton: Community Independents
- 00:28:10 Caroline Tulip: Let's hope Division by design is Dead
- 00:28:11 Colleen Gibbs: Totally Agree on Peter's comments about end of Howard era
- 00:28:24 Tony Simons: Plus lots of racism and wedging from Howard.
- 00:28:26 sheila pollard: SE I agree.
- 00:28:32 Marjorie Henzell: Correct RT
- 00:28:33 Philip Benjamin: Loved the cheers for Greens comment on Q&A!
- 00:28:37 Rachel: A reminder to post your questions for the panelists in the Q & A section.
- 00:28:40 Andrew Barty-King: We need to see what happens after the dust settles
- 00:28:42 Kathryn Boles: Mel S, so there was more of Downer losing it than we saw on tv?
- 00:28:46 Caroline Tulip: Well done Greens
- 00:28:48 mel s: Howard also changed our gun laws..RESPECT and credit where it's due Pete
- 00:28:56 mel s: I'

00:29:07 mel s: Im not a Liberal voter

00:29:15 Caroline Tulip: A Labor Prime Minister would have done same on gun laws

00:29:18 Bev Majda: Yay!!! Murph

00:29:22 Shelley Evans: Hello Katherine!

00:29:32 Alistair McCulloch: Yup, Peter. The task is to try to shift the political centre point to the left/progressive end. That's what ending the Howard years means. Cheers!! :-)

00:29:34 mel s: It's WINE O'clock now

00:29:39 Angelika Heurich: Red wine here, Peter :-)

00:29:41 Susanne Koen: Cheers Pete

00:29:43 Emma-Kate Rose: I'm drinking a fine craft pale ale! Woohoo!!!

00:29:46 mel s: Shouldn

00:29:49 Andrew Murdoch: G&T please

00:29:52 Susan Masters: Pinot for moi

00:29:54 Mark Simpson: With you Pete

00:30:06 jennifer manson: Wine is a great idea! tired of water...

00:30:09 Phillip Hodges: hello to everyone from Dandenong Victoria. This is going to be good for us. In the last 5 Federal elections, people were disappointed with both major parties. So a lot started to vote for the Independents, and gradually the Independents have imposed a change in the system to how to avoid a hang parliament.

00:30:17 mel s: Pete..Should that be Chardonnay socialism..lol

00:30:32 JOCK KREITALS: Post-election/birthday celebration trip to King and Yarra Valleys - so endless fine wine options here. Cheers everyomne!

00:30:36 Caroline Tulip: Headwinds - Urgently needed - gas price control, gas reservation and no new gasfields. Sorry but thats the truth even though Labor intends to do nothing.

00:30:39 Colin Mitchell: Labor is still too weak on climate change action. But they are also ignoring the threat of nuclear war and are taking no action to promote arms control measures to head off the threat. It is the ignored second existential crisis. The Greens should also be speaking up about this.

00:30:42 Terrence O'Brien: Hi Catherine - welcome!

00:30:57 Kevin Judah White: I thought Downer gave a mealy-mouthed response on Q & A on the East Timor issue. As well as Tim Wilson, I'm glad Eric Abetz and Amanda Stoker are gone 😊.

00:31:00 Eileen Whitehead: As always, the ALP inherit a poisoned chalice from the LNP!

00:31:02 Richard Tuffin: As long as you're not eating liver and fava beans with your Chianti Peter...

00:31:16 Bev Majda: Umm ... I love Richard's brain

00:31:19 Liz Ryan: Keynes rules OK!

00:31:30 Caroline Tulip: Terrible problems for Labor, Indys and Greens to fix

00:31:32 Angelika Heurich: Great to have you join the panel, Kathryn... looking forward to your perspectives... once the gents have had their say... :-)

00:32:03 Susan Masters: Private rental is going through the roof... pardon the pun in Vic.

00:32:11 jennifer manson: Sad we've lost Rex Patrick!

00:32:12 Rachel: Just a reminder to please keep all comments in the chat civil and on topic or you'll be removed from the discussion – Thanks!

00:32:20 Angelika Heurich: Sorry for auto-correct, Katharine!!!!

00:32:22 Tony Simons: Federal ICAC to examine bugging Timor Leste and Woodside, Downer's home for a long time. Plus drop Bernard Collaery persecution

00:32:30 Caroline Tulip: Hi Kathryn - welcome

00:32:45 Alistair McCulloch: Agree @Jennifer. Rex was a good chap to have in teh Senate

00:32:48 mel s: Kevin..Alexander Downer started finger pointing to the Greens senator..All the women were pissed off in that Q and A audience.. It was awkward watching him as well..RELIC of the past !

00:32:56 Caroline Tulip: Definitely need AG to drop Collaery persecution

00:33:13 Shelley Evans: Gaetjens gone - hooray!

00:33:26 mel s: NO NEED to apologise Katherine! You do your work

00:33:30 Kathryn Boles: Thanks for your insights, Mel. I hope they stop inviting him onto these panels!

00:33:33 Caroline Tulip: So did King get energy?

00:33:55 Jane Touzeau: Helen Trueman - have a look at Triangle Wars (on YouTube I think) about successful independent campaign City of Port Phillip council election 2008. Independents - community needs to take the initiative!

00:34:01 Tony Simons: Pezzulo should have resigned. Get rid of Border Force goons, disband it

00:34:03 mel s: Kathryn..He had his arms crossed even before the show began..Fun Fact.

00:34:32 Angelika Heurich: Wow! Tanya Plibersek was brilliant at education...

00:34:36 Kathryn Boles: Antagonistic from the start!

00:34:42 Kathryn Boles: Mel

00:34:43 Caroline Tulip: So APPEA best friend and pro gas MP Madeleine King gets energy

00:34:47 Emma-Kate Rose: Annika Wells got aged care

- 00:34:49 Stephen Pritchard: The long-lasting lie that the LNP are good economic managers needs to be put to bed. Media should stop giving it any air time.
- 00:34:53 Jane Wilkinson: w
- 00:35:05 Jane Wilkinson: who's looking after education?
- 00:35:07 Pauline Roberts: I was 14 when Gough won in 1972 and on Saturday night I knew what my extended family felt like all those years ago - a mix of absolute joy and sheer relief that the result had gone the RIGHT way!! Thanks TAI team for your excellent coverage of the election of this century!
- 00:35:19 Trish Randles: Jason clare in education
- 00:35:27 jennifer manson: I wonder where Anne Aly has ended up?
- 00:35:28 John Englart: The speed of ascension of Albanese Government is reminiscent of Labor's 1972 win. But I hope there is more memory in this government not to repeat some of the errors of Whitlam.
- 00:35:28 Judith O'BYRNE:Why are men' intelligent', but women 'bright'?
- 00:35:31 Valarie Sands: Labor's New Front Bench https://www.abc.net.au/news/2022-05-31/federal-election-live-labor-reaches-majority-albanese-ministry/101112120?sfmc\_id=351652121
- 00:35:34 Stephen Prohm: Big shout out for TanyaP. She does not seem to be flavour of the month but I've always I enjoyed her interviews.
- 00:35:42 Kathryn Boles: I'm wondering about Social Services. There are a lot of reforms to make!
- 00:35:47 Tony Simons: All have a spring in their step with removal of our worst ever PM and worst govt
- 00:35:56 Mark Hutchison: I'm glad Plibersek got Environment - experience counts
- 00:36:06 mel s: Oh YES indeed Kathryn..All the women applauded vigorously in support of the female panellists when Mr Downer became antagonistic..Great atmosphere in the audience!! Sisterhood.
- 00:36:12 Angelika Heurich: Thanks for that Trish... will see how Jason Clare goes in the Ed portfolio
- 00:36:14 CELIA SEXTON: Please do not use "Albo". That is a disrespectful echo of the Scom era
- 00:36:28 Caroline Tulip: Time for Prime Minister Albanese
- 00:36:47 Angelika Heurich: Celia, that's the handle Anthony Albanese uses on Twitter...
- 00:36:53 Judith O'BYRNE:I agree Celia - AA is a man of dignity.
- 00:37:32 Kevin Judah White: No room in ministry for Anne Aly nor Peter Khalid?
- 00:37:41 Shelley Evans: Wilke could be brilliant!
- 00:37:47 Emma-Kate Rose: Yes, Anne Aly got Early Childhood

- 00:37:54 Kathryn Boles: Fantastic, Mel!
- 00:38:14 Robynne Burchell: I agree Shelley Evans
- 00:38:18 Stephen Pritchard: I haven't seen a real change of tone from the LNP-side of the fence. But, perhaps that doesn't matter. Labor, Greens and the Independents can take the lead with a better tone. PM Albanese is leading by example.
- 00:38:26 Liz Ryan: ABC news website says 77
- 00:38:26 Trish Randles: Lisa Chesters would do an amazing job as a Minister or Junior Minister. Missed opportunity.
- 00:38:28 Tony Simons: Albo, integrity and decency missing for nine years
- 00:39:03 mel s: Anyone guess what job Tim Wilson or Josh Frydenberg will get post politics?
- 00:39:24 Alan Coligado: About time we got a leader instead of a campaigner as PM.
- 00:39:55 Liz Ryan: KM - ABC website has Labor 77
- 00:39:58 Rory Dunlevy: Albo I hope will embrace the views of women in plus embrace productivity and climate technology. No time for timidity
- 00:39:58 Licia Kokocinski: I don't think it is in Mr Albanese' personality to boast or be an alpha male. He demonstrates confidence quietly. It getting things done, not the broggadoccio.
- 00:40:17 Caroline Tulip: Chris Bowen gets energy; Madeleine King resources and Northern Australia - totally pro gas
- 00:40:21 Angelika Heurich: #BinNight collectors, Mel? :-)
- 00:40:38 Anne sorensen: well done Peter in the polling 🙏
- 00:41:08 mel s: Angelika..lol I think lobbying sadly for Tim Wilson.
- 00:41:51 mel s: Lucrative contacts that will make him get a hefty salary from his role in government
- 00:41:57 Judith Gamper: from Judith - thank you. Shall finish from recording. I have another webinar.
- 00:42:15 Caroline Tulip: Super majority of parliamentarians and senators who want actual (as opposed to Labor's weak) climate action
- 00:42:20 Susan Masters: Lisa Chesters on the outer as a big supporter of Shorten. But after 4 successive wins, she deserves recognition.
- 00:42:36 Shelley Evans: AA is actually an experienced and accomplished government leader in the house - he will be an excellent PM!
- 00:43:20 Angelika Heurich: Tim will find his way, as he always has .... including via his membership with the IPA
- 00:44:03 Christaan Cartledge: Great graphic.

- 00:44:11 Angelika Heurich: The Libs & Nats have been stuck in the 50s for a very long time... probably since the 50s
- 00:44:26 Caroline Tulip: I want to stop talking about Libs and Nats for 6 months and only talk about Gov actions; also some journalists need to be blanked out ie no info drops. They have abused their Canberra gallery privileges
- 00:44:30 Murray SAYLE: Federal ICAC now Climate Action Now tax the rich and not the poor, free child care
- 00:44:46 Brian O'Farrell: Albo has to make the Teals and Greens look good, and it is in their mutual interest, if he wants to put the Libs to the sword and not a bounce back in 2025
- 00:44:47 Ian Heriot: Absolutely a rejection of "last century" thinking
- 00:45:04 Andrew Barty-King: Yes and about time
- 00:45:04 Tony Simons: 19th C?
- 00:45:14 mel s: Angelika..Tim's stepfather is a state politician for The Mornington Peninsula..Fun Fact Why didn't anyone mention this in the press..?
- 00:45:15 Caroline Tulip: Community independents NOT TEALS, thank you
- 00:45:18 Angelika Heurich: Oh Caroline, I really want to see the Coalition at the ICAC hearings... as defendents, of course ... popcorn anyone?
- 00:45:30 Stephen Pritchard: Pleased to see support for these Labor policies. A bit surprised/disappointed there is not more support for childcare or an Indigenous voice to parliament - but at least there is a goodly proportion of support.
- 00:45:36 Caroline Tulip: Oh yeah just at ICAC; forget about them for rest of time
- 00:45:43 HEATHER KJOLLER: Way better than Netflix!
- 00:45:57 Angelika Heurich: Agree Caroline :-)
- 00:46:05 mel s: Id like to see Grace Tame leading a new political movement for millennials!
- 00:46:20 Caroline Tulip: Agree Mel
- 00:46:20 Ian Heriot: She already is1
- 00:46:21 mel s: WOW Katherine
- 00:47:09 Liz Ryan: Would be a good move for PM AA to invite Helen Haines to present her bill again, Get it done, Move on to next urgent thing....it's the vibe
- 00:47:17 Caroline Tulip: I know many ACT Liberals that voted Pocock in Upper House
- 00:47:32 Tony Simons: Agree biggest split since DLP. Religion still the issue. Evangelicals are poison.
- 00:47:41 mel s: YES..Briiighton as well..Extraordinary!
- 00:47:55 Caroline Tulip: Pentecostals in WA Liberal Party lost the party a lot of votes
- 00:48:04 mel s: Rebecca Judd is upset and attacking Dan Andrews as a result in the press

00:48:09      robert laird:      agree with labour policies and that these match with community expectations. The gap between govt revenue and expenditure is worrying. I would happily pay more tax to achieve the social/renewable/childcare changes. Should GST go to 15% like NZ?

00:48:11      mel s:      Absurd

00:48:15      Murray SAYLE:      Senate is more balanced

00:48:24      Angelika Heurich:      Agree, Liz Ryan

00:48:25      Shelley Evans:      Agree LR - it would be gold!

00:48:39      Philip Benjamin:      Roy Morgan report right now - "ALP win majority and Government Confidence jumps 28.5pts to 111.5 in the week after the Federal Election."

00:49:12      Ida Vincent:      How good is this!

00:49:13      Caroline Tulip:      Absolutely no reason not to reactivate Haines bill RIGHT on first day of Parliament. I am worried Labor will squib on retrospectivity

00:49:32      Liz Ryan:      19 is close to 20

00:49:34      Jo Barkworth:      NO to GST increase!! Impacts the poor too much.

00:49:45      Anne Shaw:      Community Independents

00:49:48      Colleen Gibbs:      Agree with Katherine, its too soon to tell if there has been a definitive decoupling from the major party and Independents will continue to be a force. What happens to the centre right and right in the future will be interesting

00:50:21      judy bamberger:      katherine is focusing on here and now; wish we would too

00:50:27      Angelika Heurich:      If Labor reneges on any part of ICAC promises they will have the wrath of the communities who voted in their Independent candidates...

00:50:28      Mark Hutchison:      Greens did some careful work in the coal seats

00:50:42      Alistair McCulloch:      Reactivating Haines Bill would pitch ICAC as a non-party cross-parliament initiative and genuinely wedge the LNP dinosaurs.

00:50:48      Caroline Tulip:      I wont go back to Labor until it actually deals with Scope 3 emissions ie gas exports

00:50:54      John McCallum:      Is this the end of Michael Rimmer

00:50:59      Terry Peters:      13 Women appointed to Ministries

00:51:08      Joanna Mendelssohn:      What about comparing the new force to the creation of the Liberal Party in the 1940s. The current lot have nothing to do with Menzies, while the so-called teals certainly do

00:51:10      Stephen Pritchard:      I agree the Haines bill for an Integrity Commission would be a great way to build bridges in the new parliament and progress this very important issue quickly.

00:51:22      Caroline Tulip:      Next election I predict Country Independents to kill off the Nats

00:51:22      Ian Heriot:      yes, Michael Rimmer is history

- 00:51:23 Greg Banova: Are traditionally ALP Outer suburban seats in danger at next election, as well as in upcoming Vic State election? The Age says Tim Pallas is in trouble in Werribee in November
- 00:51:27 Andrew Barty-King: GST increases can be targeted appropriately, ie not on certain foodstuff etc
- 00:51:42 Gregory Olsen: Folks, tax takes money out of the economy. Tax doesn't fund Federal Government spending. Spending comes first. Tax comes later.
- 00:51:49 Tony Simons: Dutton likely to lead LNP lower.
- 00:51:54 Colleen Gibbs: Agree ICAC will be important on integrity of the ALP as much as their other policies and how governing is managed.
- 00:52:17 Caroline Tulip: Independents are here to stay and community independent movement will continue to remove the fossil dinosaurs
- 00:52:27 Tony Simons: Pau; "charisma" Fletcher gone in 2025
- 00:52:33 John McCallum: thank God ..if she is real
- 00:52:45 Angelika Heurich: This is a complete revamp of our very staid, stuck "two" party system in Aus
- 00:52:47 mel s: Preach Caroline!!
- 00:52:50 Kevin Judah White: As per a previous comment, I too hope that new A-G, Mark Dreyfus, will put an immediate end to harassment of Bernie Collaery and Witness K.
- 00:52:51 Caroline Tulip: People need to have the Uluru Statement delivered to their homes so everyone can actually read it
- 00:53:10 Jo Barkworth: Poor people still have to buy other sstuff other than food!
- 00:53:13 Bev Majda: OMG the "bufer
- 00:53:42 John Englart: Country community Independents are making regional National Party and Liberal seats more marginal. Alex Dyson in western Victoria seat of Wannon forced Lib Dan Tehan to preferences.
- 00:53:44 Shelley Evans: Wow thqat is good news - democracy does work!
- 00:53:55 mel s: Ha ha Katherine!
- 00:53:56 Caroline Tulip: Exactly John.
- 00:54:12 Angelika Heurich: Let's see what happens re Julian Assange as well, Kevin
- 00:54:16 robert laird: re gst increases to enable govt investment. Suggest that we exempting some items simple leads to debate about where the tax falls and inefficiencies in collection. The way to manage the inequitable impact on low income people is to compensate them via payments such as tax refund, pension etc etc
- 00:54:26 mel s: It's restored my faith in humanity AND democracy with this election!!!

00:54:27 Licia Kokocinski: Still a lot of work to do around the Uluru Statement of the Heart statement and acceptance, if any referendum is going to be won.

00:54:50 Caroline Tulip: Yes Lucia for a start get it to everyone so they can understand it and know what it is

00:54:50 Tony Simons: Until LNP has a 2030 target no credible policy

00:55:04 Caroline Tulip: Sorry Licia

00:55:09 robert laird: MS yes, its restored my faith also

00:55:15 Ian Heriot: Recommend Midnight Oils album Makarata which has a full statement of the Voice from Uluru as its last track

00:55:20 Angelika Heurich: Hedging bets... not surprising when the Coalition has just lost in no uncertain terms...

00:55:22 mel s: It's called REBRANDING ..they are desperate now

00:55:29 Michael Cowan: Jane Hume's comment on 2GB that Liberal values are Australia's value and it's just that Australians don't understand this demonstrates how out of touch they are.

00:55:29 Murray SAYLE: #Dutton is a liability

00:55:31 mel s: I don't trust them!

00:55:34 Caroline Tulip: Thanks Ian - will listen to it

00:55:36 Jo Barkworth: Not all poor people pay tax!!

00:55:50 Richard Tuffin: Apparently the LNP don't think Labor has a mandate because of their primary vote.

I disagree. They won the election!

00:55:53 Andrew Barty-King: yes! hopeless attempt at rebranding

00:55:57 Caroline Tulip: Dutton is the Liberals first big mistake in new parliament

00:56:01 John McCallum: sorry but do any sentient beings live in Dixon

00:56:05 jennifer manson: Littleproud is expecting Labor to honor LNP promises on billions for regional & rural areas. Could this money be better used in remote aboriginal communities, aged care, environment etc

00:56:14 Kathryn Boles: Mel, they've been desperate for a while now! 😊

00:56:19 Liz Ryan: Jacinta Price doesn't support it

00:56:25 mel s: Woot!! Woot!! Bye Bye Barnaby.

00:56:29 Caroline Tulip: Unspent Nationals Net Zero $billions need to remain unpaid

00:56:34 Emma-Kate Rose: Perin Davy is an ex- Murray Irrigation lobbyist

00:56:37 Angelika Heurich: lol Mel

00:56:38 John Watson: Dutton is a placeholder, surely, while the dust settles...

00:56:39 Shelley Evans: She is a token woman Pete!

00:56:46 Tony Simons: Turnbull knew most LNP would not accept Uluru. He rejected it in 2 minutes showing very bad manners. His worst act as PM

00:56:52 Caroline Tulip: Perrin Davey is in with all the water thieves

00:57:11 Angelika Heurich: Considering the Nats only have 3 women in both houses, the token is more that obvious

00:57:15 Tony Simons: ICAC on the venal Nats

00:57:24 Jo Barkworth: No party has a MANDATE for their policies where a majority of the population didn't vote for them. And no one agrees with all the policies of the party they voted for.....

00:57:25 Andrew Barty-King: John Watson: yes agree

00:57:25 Murray SAYLE: Greens got more votes than the Nationals

00:57:39 Murray SAYLE: Gerrymander

00:57:46 Trish Randles: the Labor Party target of 43% is the floor. All want this to be exceeded.

00:57:48 Emma-Kate Rose: Yes Murray - perverse system we have eh?

00:57:50 Jane Touzeau: A water thief - suits the fossil fuel Nats perfectly.

00:57:56 Angelika Heurich: "Community Independents" thanks, Richard

00:58:01 Joanna Mendelssohn: That's why she got the gig. Northern NSW & QLD large irrigators versus the rest. Could be interesting

00:58:18 Patricia Duffy: Smart would be to focus on 2035.

00:58:23 Wendy Tubman: Agree Trish - it's just a target - which can be beaten

00:58:25 Caroline Tulip: Domestic emissions are trivial beside 50 Mtons of gas exported per annum with Labor overseeing more gasfields to be developed

00:58:30 Ian Heriot: What's wrong with agreeing a target of 43% and then exceeding it?

00:58:44 mel s: Approximately 2 million Australians voted for The Greens..that says ALOT!

00:58:45 Paul Loring: The media are already minimising and softening the Coalition, also implying they are still a voice of significance, and attacking the Gov't. They, we, will have 3 years of this, if nothing is done to change the way the media operate, and the openness and honesty of polities. This needs urgent change, ie, a years to make it happen then 2 years of a different way of operating

00:58:47 Trish Randles: Exactly Ian

- 00:58:54 Licia Kokocinski: There are three things that Labor and independents can come together with (and possibly a proportion of LNP opposition)-an ICAC & integrity, climate change and equity.
- 00:58:58 Shelley Evans: Ian spot on - work with what we have and work for more
- 00:59:00 Caroline Tulip: @Ian greens and Indys will let Labor put their weak climate policy in place and then improve on it
- 00:59:01 Wendy Tubman: Absolutely nothing IH - way to go!
- 00:59:06 Russell Johnstone: The States have carriage of this....so it may be up them!
- 00:59:06 Alistair McCulloch: It'll be interesting to see the consequences of the LNP loss of government for Murray Basin management and water flows.
- 00:59:09 Tony Simons: Porker Joyce was the Qld senator for Cubby Station and looting the Darling River
- 00:59:17 Trish Randles: The independent auditors felt 43% could be achieved together with the policy priorities.
- 00:59:21 robert laird: royal commission into media ownership in australia???
- 00:59:28 Angelika Heurich: We may just vote out the MSM next, Paul L
- 00:59:51 Russell Johnstone: For export of coal to.....China...
- 00:59:58 John McCallum: already have
- 01:00:10 Caroline Tulip: The total hypocrisy of saying we are with you on climate action to the Pacific and yet keeping on exporting gas to China is huge. We have to reduce gas production.
- 01:00:14 Trish Randles: PM AA said that only new coal mines which passed an environmental audit would open. None will.
- 01:00:20 Valarie Sands: <https://music.apple.com/au/album/uluru-statement-from-the-heart-come-on-down-feat-troy/1530795103?i=1530795441>
- 01:00:29 Richard Tuffin: Next election Labor need to set up a mandate for media reform
- 01:00:34 Caroline Tulip: Thanks @valerie
- 01:00:49 Tony Simons: Will Dutton be an insurgent like Abbott?
- 01:00:58 Liz Ryan: Quibbling about the target number is white noise. If the govt makes sure business takes off, we will get some real numbers
- 01:01:20 Andrew Barty-King: yes
- 01:01:22 mel s: Tony..Let him be Abbott 2.0 and dig themselves further in the ground into oblivion..
- 01:01:22 Wendy Tubman: Exactly Trsh. AA also said they had to pass economic criteria - they won't do that either.

- 01:01:31 Sean RICHARDSON: Bowen said mines can be built if environ & economic hurdles are met. Set the environ rules hi and remove any gov funding/incentives to make new mines stand on their own commercial & none will. Labor and greens can claim a victory.
- 01:01:33 Angelika Heurich: Oh yeah, Mell
- 01:01:34 Tony Simons: Bandt will not be as dogmatic as Bob Brown
- 01:01:37 Angelika Heurich: Mel
- 01:01:39 Caroline Tulip: Yeah the emissions number is just rubbish. We need actual improvements not fiddled figures. the LNP were lying about emissions for the decade
- 01:01:44 Katherine Byrne: I think that Is gets so much money for coal and gas that makes it so hard to stop extraction
- 01:02:04 Shelley Evans: Agree Sean this will work!
- 01:02:10 Mark Hutchison: Pretty sad if a Labor govt is lagging business in its climate targets
- 01:02:16 Rory Dunlevy: Mike Cannon Brookes / AGL reflects the annoyance at politicians timidity
- 01:02:16 robert laird: we get tax money from coal, but none from gas.
- 01:02:17 Jo Barkworth: Dutton is still not seeing how much it is costing the country to NOT take action on climate change. When will he realise that it is getting harder and harder to grow food (drought/heat/floods), transport food (floods/strong winds), store food (mice/floods) etc etc
- 01:02:19 HEATHER KJOLLER: Does Albanese 'know' that most new coal mines won't pass economic muster?
- 01:02:24 mel s: Menzies is doing somersaults in his grave at the death of his beloved party.. RIP
- 01:02:29 Caroline Tulip: We need to replace the EPBC act with a new federal environment act with fed EPA; and Put Zali's bill into Parliament
- 01:02:29 Murray SAYLE: Josh Burns MP said this morning Climate Change Climate Change
- 01:02:45 Shelley Evans: It woOn't!
- 01:02:47 Trish Randles: Labor must also ensure that the movement of workers from fossil fuel jobs into renewable jobs must also be delivered side by side with targets being achieved.
- 01:02:56 Tony Simons: Will the Nats extract a $30B lock on Dutton like Joyce?
- 01:02:57 Stephen Prohm: KatherineM. Don't introduce logic for Dutton.
- 01:03:09 Philip Benjamin: <https://www.bien2022.com/>
- 01:03:12 eva cox: we are ignoring the evident lost of trust in bigger parties may continue, data from surveys show this is high and the independent small parties may increas their votes and we'll stop having solo governments and big oppositions. This was my prediction in my boyer lectures. Trust is essential to make democracy work, too much economics and no social issues is toxic.

01:03:19 Caroline Tulip: @tony They can't if they are not in government

01:03:21 Andrew Barty-King: Trish: Crucial sequencing

01:03:35 Trish Randles: Exactly Andrew

01:03:36 robert laird: Germany had a very successful set of policies to move workers out of coal. It has been done.....

01:03:45 mel s: Yes indeed Eva Cox! We see trends like that in Europe

01:03:46 Angelika Heurich: Absolutely agree, Eva Cox

01:04:07 Sean Foley: On climate, what happened to Just Transition?

01:04:08 Caroline Tulip: Dutton will only support Haine's ICAC bill if he can get it amended watered down

01:04:16 Angelika Heurich: Oh finally... lol

01:04:37 Trish Randles: Labor don't need Dutton's support.

01:04:41 mel s: The Murdocrazy is irrelevant to the masses now

01:05:06 mel s: Millenails don't read newspapers anymore..they're alone tis Tok

01:05:11 Ian Heriot: Can't we just move on the new paradigm?

01:05:16 mel s: They're on Tim Tok

01:05:27 jennifer manson: If Dutton wants to stay in power, he has to please the right wing, which is what is left. However, he's a place-holder for now and likely to be replaced when there's a better candidate eg when Frydenberg's return. Sussan Ley's comments were very unimpressive, whilst Dutton's suggested they'll be in the wilderness until he's replaced. He can't be a soft guy and opposition leader at the same time. He'll be an Abbot type as he's shown already.

01:05:28 robert laird: but beware teh murdock papers - over time they can pull down a good government eg Julia Gillard

01:05:28 Caroline Tulip: The community indys worked around MSM to citizens directly through targeted advertising

01:05:40 Susan Masters: Murdoch readers are a dying breed

01:05:41 mel s: Social Media is news now to a younger generation

01:06:08 Alistair McCulloch: I concur. Cautious optimism but we need to take great care with triumphalism. 😊

01:06:12 mel s: How many people under thirty on here tonight?

01:06:17 Kevin Judah White: I wouldn't underestimate influence of Murdoch/Sky media over public opinion ...

01:06:27 Caroline Tulip: Pocock campaign used TikTok, Insta and Facebook

01:06:27 Angelika Heurich: ... and to so many others from all generations, Mel... me included

01:06:31 Liz Ryan: ABC shows and reporting didn't help

01:06:39 mel s: There is a generational change with news sources

01:06:48 Richard Tuffin: I still say, and this is despite its low numbers that Twitter was an influence in this election.

I'm probably bias though

01:07:01 Angelika Heurich: #add a note... Twitter is, but not sure about FB et al

01:07:01 Colin Mitchell: Albanese will have the Australian people right behind him for action on climate change and doesn't need to fear the Libs. Labor should forget its caution and go for it. Labor can afford to up the ante and increase its ambition on climate change action.

01:07:03 Cheryl Tonkin: ABC was appalling.

01:07:08 mel s: That's great Angelika!!

01:07:09 Paul Loring: To dismiss Murdoch, such a massive player, is not prudent. Techology will change but the opinions of such powerful people will not.

01:07:17 Ian Heriot: Their audiences are relatively small > disproportionate emphasis?

01:07:24 Kathryn Boles: Liz, I hope the ABC goes back to being impartial now. Great if some of those Liberals were kicked off the board.

01:07:28 Trish Randles: Twitter users can live in their own bubble by following only those who agree with them.

01:07:29 Shelley Evans: Yes - ABC is mealy mouthed!

01:07:34 Caroline Tulip: ABC needs a big competence and ethics clean out

01:07:35 John Browning: Ley reflects LNP values towards women perfectly. No perceptible thought - nothing meaningful to say. Always did what Morrison told her to do.

01:07:40 Caroline Tulip: NOT TEALS!!

01:07:41 mel s: What about twitter?

01:07:57 Angelika Heurich: "Community Independents" thanks panel

01:08:03 Anne Shaw: Community Independents please

01:08:06 Adam Stapleton: When you negate a teal, you evoke a teal

01:08:20 Stephen Pritchard: Interesting analysis of the Murdoch media by Richard Dennis.

01:08:22 mel s: Their volunteers are very sophisticated and very smart with their data and why they won Blue Ribbon Seats

- 01:08:23 Caroline Tulip: 'TEALS' is considered a liberal/ Advance Australia put down (green but not quite green)
- 01:08:35 John McCallum: any Polly that tries to appease factions rather than meaningful changes for the betterment of the planet and its species will be remembered as irrelevant
- 01:08:40 Shelley Evans: Apparently John men speak for women - in the Libs - what could possibly go wrong?
- 01:08:43 Stephen Prohm: How about referring to them as MP's representing their communities??
- 01:08:43 Rosemary Watson: ABC needs better funding, more independence
- 01:08:52 Liz Ryan: ignore the BS and plough on
- 01:08:56 Yvonne Parker: I need more wine for this
- 01:09:19 mel s: Yvonne..Maybe a stiff gin for Liberal voters..
- 01:09:20 Angelika Heurich: Not just Murdoch press... ABC & others were echo chambers for the LNP
- 01:09:25 John McCallum: agreed YP
- 01:09:28 John Browning: TEALS is good. Needs to be appropriated, not rejected.
- 01:09:34 Trish Randles: The Teal independents are the change the country needed.
- 01:09:38 Susan Masters: I will fess up... as a former Murdoch employee at the Herald Sun ... if you play it straight you can withstand anything...
- 01:09:44 Stephen Wallace: Just call them independents - no community, no teal
- 01:09:44 mel s: Can you name them Peter?
- 01:09:45 Ian Heriot: Why be so polite? Murdoch is last century!
- 01:09:54 Kathryn Boles: Time for Kevin Rudd's Royal Commission on Murdoch!
- 01:09:58 Richard Tuffin: Loving this of an evening btw.

Better than the 1pm timeslot I'm thinking

- 01:10:00 Tony Simons: Malcolm Farr is a News Ltd "graduate
- 01:10:03 mel s: YES please!
- 01:10:06 Paul white: Don't forget incompetent Government - e.g. AAT, taking months to get a passport, Robo - also impacted. People want and should expect a competent and efficient government.
- 01:10:14 Murray SAYLE: Same tactics
- 01:10:27 HEATHER KJOLLER: Still have Lachlan Murdoch as the 'new generation'? Ugh...
- 01:10:27 Susanne Koen: Yes to this time of day - much more manageable

- 01:10:31 mel s: So is Patricia Karvelas and she is now at The ABC Tony.
- 01:10:50 mel s: I agree Susanne!!
- 01:11:00 Tony Simons: PK is very annoying and her bias is obvious
- 01:11:01 Caroline Tulip: No, the Community Independents came out of a deliberately organised strategy. They are NOT the same as various other independents. The strategy was to blow up the Coalition and they did
- 01:11:04 Licia Kokocinski: There was a groundswell of hatred and disillusionment against Libs in their heartland-you have to ask if this is the case in Labor heartland?
- 01:11:11 Mark Hutchison: Loving this time slot in WA! (4pm)
- 01:11:13 Angelika Heurich: This "Community Independent" model has been shown to prove that people have a voice... it can only grow from here
- 01:11:25 Liz Ryan: Yes K Boles - and also shows like The Drum and Afternoon Briefing
- 01:11:36 Kathryn Boles: Mel, most of what I've heard from PK has been good.
- 01:11:37 Murray SAYLE: Sussan Ley "No duty of care" for future generations.
- 01:11:44 Anne Shaw: Agree Angelika
- 01:11:45 Richard Tuffin: Can't help but wonder if the Community Independents model will work as well at the State level.

I reckon it's more singular in State elections (apart from the ACT...)

- 01:11:46 Trish Randles: Much better timeslot for attendees but perhaps not for the presenters.
- 01:11:55 robert laird: Sky news must lose the contract for broadcast to the Pacific area. Its a biased take on Australian news and views and does Australia no favours in the Pacific. Pacific islander have turned to the Chinese broadcasts as alternatives. Soft power such as this is critical and has been completely bastardised by the LNP
- 01:11:58 Valarie Sands: @Paul white Re public sector - it's promising that Glyn Davis is heading up the Dept PM&C
- 01:12:06 Stephen Pritchard: PM Albanese has already been interviewed by Skye and other Murdoch media. I think the PM realises he has to reach their audiences, however he might wish to ignore that media organisation.
- 01:12:10 Caroline Tulip: The community inde0endents targeted the liberals to destroy the coalition
- 01:12:11 John McCallum: agreed MS
- 01:12:15 Susanne Koen: Totally Trish - understand that. Missing Ebony!
- 01:12:30 John Browning: Could PK perhaps think that it is all about her?

01:12:33 mel s: Let's wait for the state election here in Victoria Peter! Watch this Space with Dan Andrews alp seats..

01:12:36 Murray SAYLE: $100.000 for no seats

01:12:40 Caroline Tulip: Palmer has no ground support use loads of Minerals Council money

01:12:47 Richard Tuffin: Katy Gallagher will also be the Minister for the Public Service.

Can't help but think having a Canberran in charge of the APS will be good for it.

01:12:49 Ian Heriot: Bring back ABC overseas service

01:12:55 Angelika Heurich: I move that the next webinar endeavours to use the term "Community Independents" rather than "Teals" ...

01:12:56 Kathryn Boles: Liz, The Drum is usually good; occasionally there is an annoying panelist. Afternoon went right down after PK left.

01:13:02 Tony Simons: Teals for 2023 NSW election.

01:13:11 Emma-Kate Rose: The Greens were campaigning for 12 years in that seat

01:13:17 Rachel: Thanks to all for joining us today and for participating in a fascinating discussion!

01:13:24 Liz Ryan: reporters are in bubbles hard to break

01:13:29 John McCallum: seriously ..having a go at PK ...please

01:13:31 Raymond Lord: Yeah I'm with you Kathryn, I went to the Sydney Writer's Festival recording of The Party Room and I'm pretty sure PK progressive...

01:13:44 Michael Cowan: Palmer wanted a party structure whereas the Teals adopted the model from Indi (McGowan/Haines) representing their local issues.

01:13:45 robert laird: IH yes ABC overseas service much better. They lost the tender because they didnt take it seriously

01:13:49 mel s: I agree Kathryn..PK is fair even though she can be a bit bias to Queer issues for obvious reasons

01:13:51 Caroline Tulip: Richard Tuffin - yes the community independents movement will go after Nats and state libs next

01:14:04 mel s: HILARIOUS

01:14:06 Angelika Heurich: Katharine is drinking from a mug... hidden wine, perhaps? lol

01:14:08 Susan Masters: Teals have already said they will target the Libs in Vic... Corey who?

01:14:08      jennifer manson:      JB - an awful assumption about a great journalist

01:14:09      Colleen Gibbs: Not sure the aim of the Teal independents was to go out to destroy the liberal party but rather wanted to be heard and seen in parliament as they were no longer reflected in a the liberal party hence they became irrelevant.

01:14:18      John Watson: Fourteen? That many??

01:14:23      Tony Simons: Scotty's quiet Aussie wer not quiet

01:14:27      Richard Tuffin: PK is really passionate about issues affecting our first nation peoples, let alone LBQT issues.

01:14:29      mel s: They are silent..they will be dead in the grave soon

01:14:29      Caroline Tulip: Colleen yes it was a deliberate strategy

01:14:38      Michael Cowan:The conservatives being "free speechers" are not prone to joining and acting in a collective manner.

01:14:41      mel s: Grumpy old attitudes

01:14:52      Trish Randles: The community independents admit they are small 'L's.

01:14:59      mel s: I call it FreeDUMB of Speech

01:15:01      Trish Randles: The old Liberal values.

01:15:02      Alistair McCulloch: Many thanks for another great discussion. Enjoy the wine!

01:15:03      Angelika Heurich: Grassroots movements!!!!

01:15:04      Stephen Wallace: Everyone is the community whoever they vote for - don't try to appropriate the word. Better tactics to just say independents.

01:15:08      Jake Wishart: I am recording the IPA webinar to watch later, personally

01:15:08      Caroline Tulip: Sorry but not all the so-called Teals are from Liberals

01:15:09      Marjorie Henzell: Loving this debate and with no anxiety

01:15:11      Angelika Heurich: Thanks everyone!

01:15:13      Robynne Burchell: Thank you so much, we love youxxx
