00:20:23 Shani Williams: Niina Marni from Kurna country

00:20:50 Keith Johnson: Greetings from a wet Perth

00:20:56 Rob Calvert: The Coalition hasn't changed at all

00:21:01 Meg Nielsen: Greetings from Meg from Bungalong country.

00:21:04 Kathleen Davies: Such a positive start. I had forgotten what governance actually looks like.....

00:21:05 leanne minshull: Feels better down here in Lutruwita/Tasmania

00:21:11 Carl Stevens: Listening earlier to Senator Murray Watt at NPC and he's doing a lot in the agriculture portfolio. This is a competent government

00:21:23 John Knox: Hello from Wurundjeri woi-wurrung land

00:21:50 Anne Layton-Bennett: We finally have some adults in charge of the country.

00:22:00 Jo Garnett: They are shining a light on the LNP's incompetence and corruption - running fast to catch up with governing the country

00:22:15 Annie Ryan: Lots of actual talent in this new govt. And committed to a social contract. So good.

00:22:22 Mike Aubrey: no usually because there is so much screwed up....to fix

00:22:58 Angelika Heurich: @JoGarnett I think the Libs & Nats are doing that as well

00:23:09 Angelika Heurich: on themselves that is

00:23:13 Mike Aubrey: trying to watch this and his NPC speech

00:23:27 Kathryn Boles: I have to keep reminding myself that the good guys are in power whenever they mention the prime minister or treasurer. I automatically cringe and then I remember the LNP is not in power any more.

00:23:27 Jo Garnett:

00:23:47 Carl Stevens: Yes Annie!

00:23:55 BARBARA BAIKIE: Hello from Ngannawal country

00:24:03 Gerard (Gerry) Biddle: Certainly a big improvement with the change to Labor and Greens and Teals.

00:24:28 Brett Edgerton: Hello everyone from the land of the Turbull people (Brisbane)

00:24:30 Pauline Brown: Hello from Dja Dja Wurrung country.

00:24:36 Marion Gevers: Any chance that stage 3 tax cuts could become a non-core promise? It's so important to get rid of those! It would be obscene to proceed with those.

00:24:42 Cheryl Tonkin: There is a lot of relief resting on this government together with expectation.

00:25:16 Cheryl Tonkin: Marion we all hope so.

00:25:20 Stephen Pritchard: Great to hear the new vibe around Federal politics is better. Sad to think Labor has to rush to do a lot in a short time because some 'don't think Labor should be the natural party of government'. Why this ongoing myth?

00:25:30 Anne Layton-Bennett: Agree about the tax cuts Marion. Definitely need to ditch those.

00:26:41 Bella Anis: agreed

00:26:49 Rob Sturrock: honeymoons don't last very long anymore

00:27:04 Meg Nielsen: A feeling of hope & relief despite all the work required to fix the horrendous mess left by Coalition govt.

00:27:11 suzie macedougall: short memories

00:27:13 Eileen Whitehead: Not only tax cuts but also the ridiculous amount of money for nuclear submarines that are completely unnecessary for Australian defence - $billions!

00:27:43 Jo Garnett: Who are 'ordinary' people?

00:28:17 Eileen Whitehead: He! Not many left.

00:28:32 Rob Sturrock: what else could govt do at this point, 10 weeks in?

00:29:50 Cheryl Tonkin: How do you get involved with the Poll ?

00:29:59 Marjorie Henzell: Hello from Anaiwan Country(Armidale NSW) where we have been dealing with Covid Continuing to feel so proud of the Albanese Labor government.

00:30:13 Mitzi Tuke: good question, Cheryl

00:30:35 Eileen Whitehead: Rubbish Katherine. Higher wages do not cause inflation.

00:30:54 james ross: polls have to be random. you cant ask to be involved....

00:31:05 Cate Cooper: Eileen, I think it's the fact that wages can't keep up with inflation

00:31:10 Elizabeth Robinson: Inflation is related to huge profits not wage increases.

00:31:41 Eileen Whitehead: Absolutely. Interesting that the RBA has started to raise rates the moment the ALP came into power!

00:31:46 Cheryl Tonkin: Think there is a lot of opportunism endemic in our inflation problem.

00:32:34 Jo Barkworth: Inflation generally is due to World factors, not local factors. Interest change will not materially impact inflation.

00:32:38 Cate Cooper: With the fuel tax credit, better to end it now, than later. Might also help with EV uptake and cleaner fuel

00:33:08 Di Wykes: Agree @Cate

00:33:15 Karen Jones: crazy to extend fuel excise subsidy - its simply giving petrol companies additional profit!!

00:33:48 Cheryl Tonkin: Fuel prices not appearing to have alleviated road usage. Not keeping cars off the road.

00:33:51 Jo Barkworth: Fuel prices seem to have dropped a lot recently

00:33:51 Carl Stevens: Agree @Karen Jones

00:33:56 Darryl Fallow: Yes Cate we need cleaner fuel -the introduction of a mandatory fuel efficiency standard would be a good idea.

00:34:07      robert taylor:    I have to say that im pleasantly surprised at the manner in which this new Govt. has taken on the many challenges we / they face. I hope they don't try to rush to much through and just deliver good basic government for all.

00:34:16      Eileen Whitehead:      No problem with EVs

00:34:45      Andrew Barty-King:      Well said RT

00:35:20      Cate Cooper:      184 Billion!

00:35:43      Cate Cooper:      How many hospitals and schools would that provide

00:36:01      Cate Cooper:      How much social housing?

00:36:10      Cheryl Tonkin:      Or put dental into medicare ???

00:36:13      Eileen Whitehead:      Plus the $200billion on nueclear subs!

00:36:22      Brett Edgerton: Inflation is difficult one as it is going to be the worst of both worlds. Interest rates on savings accounts will remain below inflation so retirees will go backwards. And since we have some of the highest house prices in the world, borrowers will still be in major strife. People will not be interested in considering whether the inflation is local or internationally derived and that will be very difficult to manage especially since both sides of politics are guilty of creating and managing a housing bubble economy...

00:37:15      Cate Cooper:      Agree Brett

00:37:38      Jo Barkworth:      Maybe, Brett, but they are interested in why interest rates should go up if that won't fix the problem, and the mortgage stress they are under

00:37:43      Carl Stevens:      If the Libs support No they will align themselves with PHON and show their true colours

00:38:33      Angelika Heurich:      It seems the opposition is determined to oppose everything, so their stance on the Voice may sit in the no camp

00:38:44      Cate Cooper:      It's like deciding that you will build a house before deciding what the house looks like

00:38:45      Karen Jones:      good analysis of the critical risk Pete

00:39:08      Nicole Adler:      The abolition of the Indue CDC was a good first step.

00:40:05      Rob Calvert:      @Cate ...more like deciding to build and then going to an architect

00:40:11      Angelika Heurich:      Agree, but he Basics car needs review as well, @Nicole

00:40:19      Angelika Heurich:      card

00:40:36      Stephen Pritchard:      Well put Peter: 'accepting an RSVP' akin to accepting a First Nations Voice to Parliament in the Constitution.

00:40:44      Cate Cooper:      Either way Rob, you have to make the first decision

00:40:48      Nicole Adler:      @Angelica yes, absolutely!

00:41:28      Rob Calvert:      @Cate ....agree a decision is urgently required

- 00:41:50 Karen Jones: how much slower could you possibly go???
- 00:42:56 Karen Jones: He needs to come out really strong!! Churchill style rhetoric!
- 00:43:07 Eric Hunter: Sorry -trying to find analogies to a unique principle is likely to be counter-productive because they don't really fit this situation.
- 00:43:56 Eileen Whitehead: <https://www.pressreader.com/australia/the-saturday-paper/20220806/281599539264240>
- 00:44:08 Rob Calvert: States are already moving to treaties
- 00:44:53 Jennifer Manson: It needs to be presented as an opportunity for us all to access indigenous knowledge and wisdom
- 00:44:56 Peter Monie: If we cannot ditch the Stage 3 Tax Cuts, can we either amend them or introduce a Windfall Profits tax on the foreign Fossil Fuels exports - that's what we need urgently
- 00:44:57 Nicole Adler: Yes @Rob Rev Fred Nile and the Greens have been busy in that regard
- 00:45:35 Murray Sayle: 43% emissions reduction is too low in a #ClimateCrisis, but a mile ahead of the COALition, Record Fires, record floods #Lismore Records beach erosion, LNP never again.
- 00:46:04 Jennifer Manson: The Voice is a chance for us all to learn from our indigenous people and gain info from them.
- 00:46:52 Brian O'Farrell: they will need to explain how the Voice is different to reinstating ATSIC
- 00:47:08 David Karr: With the passing of the environmental legislation, do you believe that LaboUr needs to work with the opposition towards a consensus on this issue. Otherwise with a change in political fortunes we will be back to where we were under the coalition
- 00:47:17 Eric Hunter: Pete and Katherine both have hit the nail on the head. I also recommend Constitutional expert Anne Twomey's justification and rationale for the Voice. See The Conversation, July 2020.
- 00:47:36 Nicole Adler: 😊
- 00:47:37 Sumithri Venketasubramanian: Just a reminder to use the Q&A function to submit questions for the panel to answer live!
- 00:47:40 David Karr: If the Voice is a 4th level of political discussion, it will NOT fly. Indigenous people need to be recognised as original inhabitants and users of Australia. They have been extremely badly treated. They need to be consulted on issues that impact on them through consensus discussion. But again NOT another level of attempted governance
- 00:47:51 Jennifer Manson: A voice is a chance to gain another perspective on all issues affecting Australians.
- 00:48:20 Murray Sayle: Native Forest are being cut down killing our native animals, enough is enough #VoteYes

00:49:33 Sumithri Venketasubramanian: <https://australiainstitute.org.au/event/uluru-statement-from-the-heart-sydney-peace-prize-winner-2/>

00:49:42 Stephen Pritchard: If the Libs go 'full Tony Abbott' on the Voice referendum then it will make them even more irrelevant in Australian politics. I can't see younger people warming to such a political party in the future.

00:49:47 Caroline Reid: Stopping calling it a mysterious 'Voice' might help - cant we just call it an advisory body of First Nations people?

00:50:10 Karen Jones: @David Karr there's explicitly no intention for a 4th level government (except as scare tactics amongst the naysayers)

00:50:13 jannene kyytsonen: It will be great to see voice reflect indigenous values as separate from euro centric one

00:50:33 vIDA gAIGALAS: why not call it VOICES.. it won't be all a united voice, people will have various views and issues

00:51:35 jennifer manson: Agree Caroline! It's made to appear like something mysterious and opaque.

00:51:38 vIDA gAIGALAS: even better BLAK VOICES

00:52:30 Caroline Reid: Pocock is on about fixing dodgy forestry assets - This stuff https://twitter.com/pollyjhemming/status/1491288193215639552?s=21&t=Z\_QkA7tzjNhWcpnfcndvhw

00:52:57 Elizabeth Robinson: There should be a moratorium.

00:53:12 Cheryl Tonkin: Concerned that the 43% floor is the equivalent of bailing out the Titanic with a jam tin.

00:53:56 Karen Jones: the concept of "Voice" with a capital V encompasses the idea of multiple and diverse voices, lower case v.

00:54:01 jennifer manson: Perhaps Cheryl, but at least it's a step forward and easy to build upon

00:54:02 Cate Cooper: Agree Cheryl, but with the certainty offered by the legislation, private investment will hopefully push us way past 43%

00:54:04 Caroline Reid: Pocock also wants emissions impact assessments on major government expenditure proposals

00:54:05 Jo Barkworth: Agree, Cheryl. But it is a starting point for better. If we only reach 43% by 2030 we are all in trouble

00:54:32 Eric Hunter: Agree Ebony. If you don't quite understand what the Uluru Statement is about, look at last week's TAI webinar with Pat Anderson and Megan Davis ( who have also co-authored the three point draft Constitutional wording ( so despite some misinformation, it was not a political or bureaucratic exercise). We don't have to wait to be told what our First Australians have asked for ( at the invitation of the Coalition in 2015). There's plenty of information already available if we care to look.

00:54:43 leonie cowan: Tanya hasn't rejected it yet

00:54:48 Dr Bev Majda: Well said @KarenJones

00:55:02 Caroline Reid: Palmer mine was unlikely anyway and it hasn't been knocked back yet

00:55:14 Elizabeth Robinson: What about fuel efficiency standards?

00:55:37 Kathleen Davies: Removing barriers to EV adoption are also important - like Vic EV tax....

00:55:39 Jo Barkworth: MOST Australians drive very short distances and rarely, if ever drive huge distances

00:55:42 Murray Sayle: Plugshare.com range is not a major issue

00:56:01 Ron Lawler: ATSIC was a voice to government and not to parliament. When it was reviewed in 2003 there were some key improvements suggested. This review was ignored and the fact that there was no guarantee in the constitution meant that the major parties, in discomfort politically, as a consequence raced to the bottom. This meant they agreed to massacre the whole concept of a Voice rather than improve it. In my view the big issue was the involvement in service delivery at the expense of focussing on policy and strategy.

00:57:09 Eric Hunter: Yes Ron,

00:57:40 jannene kyytsonen: Economics will drive energy policy and implementation, but transport needs federal regulation for interoperability of EV chargers. We need to future proof ability to both draw and charge using EV batteries.

00:58:03 Cate Cooper: John Barilaro, the word you are looking for is KARMA, not trauma

00:58:21 Caroline Reid: Current EVs in Australia cannot tow caravans, do heavy work. Need larger stronger vehicles - it's not just range that is a problem or price

00:58:30 jennifer manson: Yes Cate, yet he sees himself as a victim. Pathetic.

00:58:44 Cate Cooper: Caroline, that's not true

00:59:10 jannene kyytsonen: @ Caroline check about towing ?

00:59:25 Darryl Fallow: "He is a victim!" - Poor soul!

00:59:36 Cate Cooper: There's just no Ute model available yet

01:00:11 Caroline Reid: Yes, work EV VEHICLES are required not just short range city cars

01:00:19 Jo Barkworth: You don't have to have a ute to tow a caravan. My dad used to tow a van with a Ford Capri!

01:00:20 Anne Layton-Bennett: Caroline, I think there are EV buses now, and certainly trucks, so please check. EVs have come a long way pretty quickly.

01:00:36 Cate Cooper: The problem with EV towing is that the extra weight reduces range

01:00:37 Caroline Reid: @Anne I said 'affordable'

01:00:37 Eric Hunter: You're right Ron. I worked for ATSIC for a short while and to my mind, there was fault on all sides - the Labor Government, the largely white staff in Central office and the lack of fiscal training for the regional and rural Indigenous representatives. And, of course, the Howard Government found it most convenient to blame the Indigenous staff.

01:00:42 leonie cowan: Chris Minns voted against the Great Koala National Park and supported heavy penalties against peaceful protest. Unfortunately

01:01:07 Jo Barkworth: 400 km range is available

01:01:13 Caroline Reid: @Cate exactly going reduces range

01:01:42 Tracey Hamilton: Love my EV. Never have to go to a petrol station again

01:02:01 Cate Cooper: I'd be happy with 200km range when towing

01:02:11 Jo Barkworth: QLD Gov is increasing availability of charging points. Noone should be driving more than 200 km without a break

01:02:20 Caroline Reid: Speaking of Trump FBI is looking for illegally removed government documents which is an offence under US Federal law

01:02:46 Cheryl Tonkin: I'm hanging out for a small, practical SUV Ev that is reasonably priced. Guess I'm expecting too much.

01:03:10 Cate Cooper: Kia Niro?

01:03:35 jennifer manson: As Ebony says, it's about integrity. It's also about gender and who's best for the job, rather than one of the boys.

01:03:37 Mike Aubrey: Kia Niro...good one

01:03:39 Elizabeth Robinson: 2 yrs wait Kate

01:03:41 Caroline Reid: Price is the biggest issue with EVs and getting the types of vehicle builds we need in Australia. We do not all live in cities and often travel a long way with heavy loads.

01:03:57 Anne Layton-Bennett: Cheryl, check out the BYD range of EVs. I have one on order. That's Build Your Dream BTW

01:04:10 Cheryl Tonkin: Thanks Anne.

01:04:12 Kathleen Davies: Such a pity that we have lost TRUST in the institutions.

01:04:29 jennifer manson: Clearly in NSW merit is less important than politics.

01:04:53 Denise Rawling: so well said KM. the institutions need to defend their purpose and that is the people functioning in them. A good reminder.

01:05:22 Rob Sturrock: America's best days are behind it, in our lifetimes

01:05:23 Meg Nielsen: Coalition with the Nationals needs to be looked at very closely by the Liberals. From my experience with the Nationals is that the majority have no understanding or concern for environment or climate & entrenched jobs for the boys entitlement issues.

01:05:26 Jim Spithill: This is the Rusty Bowers position at the Jan 6th hearings: simply, having a personal moral compass.

- 01:05:31 Dr Bev Majda: Excellent! Great input as always murpharoo
- 01:06:25 jannene kyytsonen: The decline of the values and ethics of the population of a declining empire is sad. We are maintaining a worrying alliance with old empires of UK and USA and their relevance depravation attitudes. Rather see us grow closer to Quad and growing powers in Asia ( Vietnam, Indonesia , Malaysia etc. etc)
- 01:06:29 Di Wykes: It is the result of senior appointments in the public service increasing becoming politically aligned over time.
- 01:06:30 james ross: or a rusty moral compass?
- 01:07:12 Tony Simons: The Inquiry should also look at any role in the Trade Commissioners creation by Shredder Gladys.
- 01:07:31 Philip Derham: Tax cuts = benefiting the rich - and supported by the rich parliamentarians!
- 01:07:42 Cheryl Tonkin: KM, think your polling has failed you on the State 3 cuts.
- 01:07:45 Cate Cooper: deferring is not abandoning
- 01:07:50 Caroline Reid: Tax the gas exporters and fix the budget. Multinational tax discussion paper is out and Chalmers invited input on that topic
- 01:08:16 Stephen Pritchard: Good points being made about 'trust in institutions'. One responsibility of the new Labor government, by their ongoing conduct as well as their words, will be to improve respect for government institutions. Otherwise, we continue to slide in the direction the US has gone.
- 01:08:21 Caroline Reid: No one supports stage 3 tax cuts when you explain it to them
- 01:08:34 Cate Cooper: Could always have a budget repair levy on both high income earners and corporations
- 01:08:41 Murray Sayle: Delay stage 3 tax cuts
- 01:08:51 Jim Spithill: Can stage 3 cuts be capped at say the $$ amount at twice average weekly earnings becoming a cap for all higher incomes?
- 01:09:10 Keith Johnson: Cancel Stage 3 Tax Cuts
- 01:09:11 Kathleen Davies: Plenty of money could be saved by stopping fossil fuel subsidies
- 01:09:11 Karen Jones: AND ditch all subsidies on Fossil Fuel companies, gas expansions etc, and ban policial donations from FF companies
- 01:09:22 Cate Cooper: YES Karen!
- 01:09:29 jannene kyytsonen: Would think inflationary impact of tax cuts would knock them off agenda?
- 01:09:37 Ron Lawler: Thanks Eric. The fatal difference was that Howard personally saw no place for any kind of First Nations representative body from the late 1980s. I managed the support to the ATSIC regional elected arm in SW NSW for 12 years. I saw what was possible but giving the elected arm the power to allocate funding to service delivery organisations gave a perception of institutionalised pork barrelling - more perception than reality from where I worked. They were not the inventors of pork barrelling!

01:09:44 Caroline Reid: Just letting people know the multinational tax cheat paper has been released for consultation. Have your input here: <https://treasury.gov.au/sites/default/files/2022-08/c2022-297736-cp.pdf>

01:09:58 Cheryl Tonkin: Incredible the amount of incompetence & corruption that has been involved with our gas industry/supplies. The roting is criminal.

01:10:25 Murray Sayle: Gas companies pay not tax and are killing the planet

01:10:31 Caroline Reid: Gas export sector has Labor blackmailed and Madeleine King in their pocket

01:10:37 Karen Jones: but that's history Katherine - public perceptions have shifted greatly since the Rudd Gillard era

01:11:12 Caroline Reid: Gas has never been a transition fuel and remember all our pharmaceuticals and plastics come from it

01:11:22 jannene kyytsonen: We need better forensic accountants following money trail from fossil fuel companies to political system?

01:11:23 Cate Cooper: What ever happened to Government of the People For the People By the People? Do we have Government of the people for the rich by the rich

01:11:25 Karen Jones: the "transition fuel" was simply a marketing ploy of Morrison's - no history or substance

01:11:31 Murray Sayle: EV Utes <https://thedriven.io/2022/08/08/powerwalls-on-wheels-the-plan-to-make-electric-utes-in-australia/>

01:11:41 John Knox: I call it what it is #FossilGas

01:11:51 Carol Bailey: Everything about 'clean gas' and 'clean coal' was a lie!

01:11:56 Cate Cooper: Thanks Murray

01:12:05 Mitzi Tuke: its liquid methane

01:12:09 John Knox: natural gas is a marketing term from the #FossilFuel industry

01:12:12 Cate Cooper: Yes Mitzi

01:12:33 Murray Sayle: LNG is 94% methane

01:12:56 Meg Nielsen: yes Carol Bailey!

01:13:30 Karen Jones: natural gas natural coal - that's a red herring Pete 😊

01:13:30 Cate Cooper: ooooh! Can't get that image out of my head now! Coal in a lumpy leotard

01:13:58 Kathleen Davies: ScoMo would say 'don't be afraid'!

01:14:07 Cate Cooper: haha

01:14:23 Stephen Pritchard: Crazy idea but ... how about a 'budget repair levy' equal to the stage 3 tax cuts, levied only on the those receiving the tax cuts - cancelling the effect of the tax cuts? Then, Labor keeps its promise! A win-win! (Yes, as I said, it was a crazy idea.)

01:14:24 Cate Cooper: The stuff nightmares are made of

01:14:26 Mitzi Tuke: we are so behind on wind

01:14:28 Meg Nielsen: Yes Karen Jones...a red herring.

01:14:40 Cate Cooper: I like it Stephen!

01:14:53 Eric Hunter: Coal gas ( remember it?) was also a "natural" gas.

01:15:00 jannene kyytsonen: Would be interesting to see an AI version of a future Australia, independent of cultural and unconscious bias and cognitive limitations. Would love to see tech futurists paint ecologically sound roadmap?

01:15:06 jennifer manson: Stephen, great idea, levy only on the higher levels of income

01:15:35 Cate Cooper: Maybe the levy should exceed the stage three cuts by 1% or so

01:16:05 Stephen Pritchard: Yes, Cate, that would be even better!

01:16:26 Karen Jones: @ Stephen - I think your levy idea is a winner!

01:16:26 Carl Stevens: Thankyou Ed, Katharine and Pete: another valuable discussion on a range of big topics.

01:16:36 jennifer manson: jannene sadly AI technicians have masses of bias (conscious and unconscious) based on the homogeneity of the workforce

01:16:47 jannene kyytsonen: The nuclear game is an ambit bid to open up selling more uranium to global market sidestepping bans.

01:16:56 Leonora Ritter: Thanks for another great session.

01:17:09 Cate Cooper: Plus you can't use loop holes to escape the levy

01:17:10 Murray Sayle: France has turned down Nuclear power as the rivers are too hot

01:17:18 Cheryl Tonkin: An Enquiry by the IPA ???

01:17:18 Mary Stephens: Thank you all for another interesting hour.

01:17:21 Karen Jones: how does burying nuclear waste protect the future of the planet?

01:17:32 Nicole Adler: I am an invest in energy storage person - federal infrastructure required

01:18:01 Carol Bailey: I takes more than 10 years to build and commission a nuclear reactor and I do not believe one has ever been successfully decommissioned.

01:18:06 Jo Barkworth: We will NEVER need to have dangerous nuclear in this country. AND just another target for those who might threaten us.

01:18:07 Cate Cooper: Good point KM

01:18:11 Angelika Heurich: Great discussion by panel and in the chat... thanks everyone!

01:18:13 Cate Cooper: *point

01:18:13 Tony Simons: Thanks for a great forum
