

TASMANIAN OCEAN SUMMIT 22

PRESENTED BY

Tasmania

FRIDAY 25th NOVEMBER 2022

SPRING BAY MILL • TRIABUNNA

Time	Session	Speaker
9.30am	Coffee and registration
10.00am	Introduction	Eloise Carr Director, Australia Institute Tasmania
	Welcome to Country	Auntie Brenda Hodge tebrakunna country Elder
	Opening Remarks	Ebony Bennett Deputy Director, The Australia Institute
10.20am	Truth-Telling: whose Oceans are they?	Fiona Hamilton trawlulwuy woman of tebrakunna country, Tasmanian Aboriginal Heritage Officer and businesswoman
10.40am	In conversation - Stories from Sea Country, caring for Sea Country, Indigenous entrepreneurship	Trent Prouse and ben Hall First Nations Tasmanians from the Pardarrama Nation
11.00am	Audience Q&A
11.15am	Morning tea
11.30am	Tasmania's amazing marine life	Ass. Prof. Neville Barrett Marine and estuarine ecologist, IMAS
11.40am	Climate change, citizen science and the redistribution of Tasmanian species	Prof Gretta Pecl Director, Centre for Marine Socioecology and ARC Future Fellow
11.50am	Review of the Living Marine Resource Management Act 1995	Dr Ian Dutton Director, Marine Resources, DNRET
12.00pm	Audience Q&A
12.15pm	National and international ocean governance initiatives	Dr Russell Reichelt AO FTSE Australian Sherpa, High Level Panel for a Sustainable Ocean Economy
12.25pm	Transforming fishing businesses, globally and locally	Martin Exel, Managing Director, Seafood Business for Ocean Stewardship (SeaBOS)

12.35pm	Audience Q&A
12.50pm	Lunch
1.35pm	Marine management now: best practice vs reality and what's right for Tasmania	Dr Beth Fulton Senior Principal Research Scientist, CSIRO.
1.45pm	Towards a shared vision for our marine environment	Dr Jess Melbourne-Thomas Transdisciplinary Researcher and Knowledge Broker, CSIRO
1.55pm	Audience Q&A
2.10pm	Panel #1: Management frameworks for the ocean we want: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review of the Living Marine Resource Management Act 1995 priorities for reform best practice examples dealing with conflict where to from here? 	Chaired by Dr Alistair Hobday Research Director & Senior Principal Research Scientist, CSIRO Emeritus Professor Kate Warner AC FAAL Former Governor of the Tasmania (2014-21) Dr Ian Dutton Director, Marine Resources, DNRET Dr Beth Fulton Senior Principal Research Scientist CSIRO Nicola Waldron Manager Policy and Strategy, Environment & Climate Change, DELWP, VIC Government Dr Larelle Bossi Regenerative ethicist, IMAS, UTAS
3.25pm	Afternoon tea
3.40pm	Panel #2: Economics for the ocean we want: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Blue economy opportunities Exporting profits vs community returns Measuring value in healthy oceans Is it all about money? Where to from here? 	Chaired by Leanne Minshull Publican and former Tasmanian Director of the Australia Institute Dr Greg Jericho Policy Director, Labour Market and Fiscal for the Centre for Future Work, Guardian Columnist Executive Director of the Australia Institute Graeme Wood Environmentalist, entrepreneur, philanthropist and Spring Bay Mill transformer Martin Exel Managing Director, SeaBOS Angela Williamson Director of Policy & Planning, Blue Economy CRC Dr Ingrid van Putten Senior Researcher, Resource Economics, CSIRO
4.55pm	Closing remarks	Eloise Carr Director of the Australia Institute Tasmania
5.00pm	Close
5-6pm	Drinks and networking	