

ANNE KANTOR FELLOWSHIP – TASMANIA

- Are you a dynamic and ambitious individual eager to make a lasting impact on important public policy debates?
- Do you possess a relentless drive to solve complex problems and make real change happen?
- If so, the Anne Kantor Fellowship invites you to embark on a transformative journey of personal growth and professional excellence!

The Anne Kantor Fellowship (Tasmania) is a unique program providing paid training positions to equip new voices in Australia's policy and democratic debates. Named after the philanthropist, and trailblazer, Anne Kantor, our Fellowships seek to support, train, and nurture the next generation of change-makers.

During the 12-month (or part-time equivalent) Fellowship, you will learn how to undertake research, prepare reports, turn ideas into reality, and gain an understanding of how public policy actually gets made in Australia.

This position will be based in Hobart, Tasmania. This position is delivered in partnership with the Tasmanian Independent Science Council. In this role, you will be required to provide secretariat duties for the Science Council while contributing to the work of our Tasmanian office with a focus on democracy and accountability, marine governance, climate change, environmental and economic policy.

About us:

The Australia Institute is Australia's leading independent think-tank. We produce high-quality, timely research designed to have impact across a broad range of economic, social, accountability and environmental issues.

Our work is designed to influence and persuade policymakers and politicians and shift the public debate. We are fiercely non-partisan, but we don't shy away from engaging in debates on ideas. We believe in democracy and our work is aimed at a better, more informed democratic debate.

What We Offer:

- ✓ Fellows will have the unique opportunity to gain on-the-job training in research, advocacy and media.
- ✓ Mentorship to guide and inspire you.
- ✓ Membership of a diverse and interconnected community of advocates and change-makers, providing a lifetime of invaluable connections and collaborations.
- ✓ $55,000 per annum, plus super and a $2,000 relocation allowance if relocating from interstate to take up the position in Hobart.

Who We Seek:

We are on the lookout for exceptional candidates who embody Anne Kantor's visionary spirit. Ideal fellows should possess:

- ✓ A Track Record of Excellence: Candidates should have a proven history of academic or professional achievements that demonstrate their commitment to making a difference.
- ✓ Passion and Purpose: We seek individuals with a burning passion for their field of interest and a clear vision of how they can positively impact society.
- ✓ Innovation and Creativity: We value bold thinkers who are not afraid to challenge the status quo and come up with innovative solutions to complex problems.
- ✓ Collaboration and Empathy: The Anne Kantor Fellowship is built on a foundation of collaboration and empathy. Fellows should be adept at working with diverse teams and building meaningful relationships.
